A screenshot of a web browser window with a magnifier tool active. The browser's address bar shows 'www.example.com'. The page content includes the word 'aliquam' in a large serif font, followed by a line of smaller text containing the word 'auctor' which is underlined. A magnifier tool is positioned over 'auctor', displaying '150%' zoom. The tool has a dark grey background with a white border and contains a yellow '+' button, a yellow '-' button, and a yellow input field with '150'. Navigation arrows are visible on the sides of the magnifier. Below the main content, there is a large, faint play button icon. In the bottom right corner, a partial view of another browser window is visible, showing a menu bar with 'File', 'Edit', and 'View', and a grid of buttons including 'C', '±', '7', and '8'.
