

Community Meeting (Mar 13, 2019): Experience music through a sense of touch

Description

With advancements in technology the idea of inclusivity within music has become more possible than ever before. This talk discusses the technology and science behind the idea that deaf communities may be able to experience music through a sense of touch.

Video Recording

Notes